

Raymond Waguespack
11th Circuit Representative
Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of Georgia

I began my federal court service in June 1986 as a generalist clerk for the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans, Louisiana. Since then, I worked for the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals as a Docket Clerk, and as a Case Administrator for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Georgia where I currently hold the position of Quality Control Analyst.

I have lived in the Atlanta, Georgia area for nearly twelve years, but am a native of Southeastern Louisiana. Before leaving Louisiana, I attended one of the local junior colleges and studied Business Administration. After relocating to Atlanta, I continued my education and earned an Associate's Degree in Business Administration in August, 1995. Later, I enrolled in Georgia State University and majored in history. I completed the degree program in December 1998 and graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree. I also have received the honor of induction in the Golden Key Honors Society for being in the top ten percent of my class. I plan to enroll in graduate school to pursue a Masters in Public Administration.

I joined FCCA in 1988. FCCA's educational focus is one of the primary reasons I support the organization. Since joining FCCA, I have attended five conferences, which has given me the opportunity to visit various parts of the country and meet many interesting people. I have served as the FCCA representative in my court for the past ten years. I also have been a recipient of the Carol Fitzgerald Scholarship. I am proud and excited to hold the position of FCCA Representative for the Eleventh Circuit. It is my goal to increase membership within the Eleventh Circuit's geographical area. I look forward to meeting the varied challenges of this position.
